

Summary of Safety Services Offered by Sisk & CO.

At Sisk & Company we work with you to help you improve your safety program. Protecting employee safety and health helps your company be more profitable and reinforces your good corporate citizenship.

Sisk Services Offered To All Clients

- Coordinate carrier services
- Review safety procedures and loss control manuals
- Review claims procedures and analyze loss data
- Perform loss control surveys
- Research regulatory guidelines (OSHA, DOT, etc.)
- Sharing special topics and current items of concern via email
- Site visits to provide audits and suggestions for improving safety and loss control
- Cost Containment Certification help
- Claims advocacy and monitoring of open claims
- Provide customizable safety programs on topics such as – OSHA required written programs

In addition to the services offered to all Sisk & Company Clients, your membership in the MSEA provides these valuable services.

- OSHA alliance contacts
 - Employer rights under OSHA
 - OSHA reporting requirements
 - How to handle specific situations, such as serious injury/fatality
 - What to do if inspector shows up on site, etc.
- Review loss runs to help you target and analyze your loss history and develop targeted improvement plans.
- Use OSHA history & records to help members proactively prevent losses and claims.
- Help investigating complex or costly claims
- Help clients develop a safety culture
 - Provide assistance in helping clients meet the safety expectations of major operators in the oil and gas business
- Conduct drill rig audits and field safety inspections.
- Help establish return to work programs
- Provide support for contesting OSHA citations during the informal conference stage.

The following classes are offered to MSEA members at no charge (classes are 2 hours or less)

- Train the Trainer Fundamentals
- Introduction to Defensive Driving
- DOT Drug Awareness for Supervisors
- Back Safety and Lifting Safety Overview
- Slip & Fall Injury Prevention
- Fall Protection fundamentals
- Introduction to Taking Exams and Test Preparation (how to study, how to learn, etc for field hands)
- Introduction to Severe Weather Safety (e.g. storms, time of year, drill rigs and work over rigs in severe weather-tipping, etc.)

Advance Services Coordinated with/for Association Members.
These services are offered by 3rd party consultants.

- Company needs assessments and custom designed safety programs
- OSHA Inspection support and OSHA Citation support
- Crisis management services/emergency preparedness plans
- Advanced level training and classes that provide 3rd party certification
 - Advanced Defensive Driving
 - Ergonomic Evaluations and Related Job Training
 - Advanced Fall Protection Training
 - OSHA 10 Hr-Construction or General Industry Training
 - OSHA 30 Hr-Construction or General Industry Training
 - First Aid/CPR and AED Training
 - Contractor Orientation – (a 4 hour or 10 hour orientation is available)
 - Custom Designed New Employee Orientation
 - Fork Lift/Industrial Truck Operator Training
 - ATV Operator Training
 - Crane Operator NCCCO “National Commission For The Certification of Crane Operators”
 - Boom truck Operator Training
- The following require written programs and are employer /work site specific.
 - Control of Biological Hazards
 - Fall Protection Program Development and Advanced Training
 - Developing an Ergonomics Assessment Program and Implementation
 - Writing Site Specific Emergency Plans and Severe Weather Response Plans.
 - Development Site Specific Safety Compliance Manuals
 - SPCC, Storm Water Pollution Prevention Programs and Other Environmental Compliance Programs and Related Training.
- List of vendors that provide high quality services for the MSEA business, such as:
 - List of restoration services
 - List of wellness services
 - Industrial hygiene services-mold
 - Radioactive sources to testing